Editorial : 60 Years of action

by A. Y.-M.

This article is written to mark the anniversary of 60 years of struggle by the League for Women's Rights.

The writer points out the importance and the courage of those women who started the long struggle for women's suffrage and equal rights facing the reactionist society of that time.

The writer expresses the wish to achieve in the next 60 years all our goals so that the League will have no reason of existence.
